Thanks to all family, friends, and acquaintances that provided encouragement and support for this crazy idea I had. Your excitement helped me get through the process. Special thanks to Maria Clark for helping with the fonts. Lori Koettters for proofreading. Tracey Schlepphorst for guidance. Joseph Ott with the legal side of things. David Adam/Muddy River News for taking immediate interest in the project. Barhop Design for helping with social media. Greg Wittland for the financial & tax advice. Very special thanks to Bobbe White for being my cheerleader and sounding board. Very specialist thanks to my kids and grandkids for the inspiration and support ... particularly Katelyn Kinscherf ... who suggested this adventure.

And the most specialist thanks of all ... to my lil' duffer. My heart is yours.

The Bakers live on a nice little street in a nice little house with a nice front yard surrounded by a nice little fence.

The reviews are in for The Baker's Patio!

Ant's Health raves "Best insect prose in years!"

Good Antkeeping says "OH! MY! GOSH! I cannot wait for the next in the series!"

Ant's Home Journal claims "The Queen is so to die for! Long live the Queen!"

The first in a series created by Kinscherf, The Baker's Patio looks into the trials and tribulations of an ant colony ... the hijinks which ensue ... and how cooperation is the key to survival despite the challenges they face.

After 30 years as an IT Consultant, Kinscherf, with encouragement from his family, leveraged his method of play with his grandchildren to create something for all to enjoy. Brogaard's passion for encouraging imagination in children and adults alike, along with her artistic versatility make her the perfect creative match for Kinscherf.
